

GREYWACKE

GREYWACKE CHARDONNAY 2022

'Once the transient reduction lifts, this displays an expressive wine with ripe peach and marmalade flavours accompanied by a generous serving of cinnamon oak and ginger spice. The charming, mouth-filling flavours glide seamlessly across the mid-weight palate before grapefruit and vanilla come together on the creamy finish of white chocolate. Flavoursome while remaining bright, this accessible wine is very enjoyable now but will gain more weight and nutty complexity over the next few years.'

93 Points, Stephen Wong MW, THEREALREVIEW.COM

'Lifted aromas of quince, grilled nuts, stone fruit, grapefruit pith, nougat, spice and white flowers. Full-bodied, textured and mouth-filling. Full of nectarine, white peach, melon, nutty oak and a lovely layered creaminess. The acidity is punchy and delivers plenty of cut and snap and there's a lick of grippy phenolics shaping the finish.' 93 Points, Aaron Brasher, THEREALREVIEW.COM

'The 2022 Chardonnay is ripe and powerful, with intense fruit in the mouth, buttered popcorn characters and yellow peach. The acidity is as bright as the fruit is ripe, a characteristic of New Zealand Chardonnay that is both distinct and consistent. This is a little more obvious and fruit-driven than last year's iteration.'

92 Points, Erin Larkin, ROBERT PARKER WINE ADVOCATE

'Sumptuously rich aroma, toasty, mealy and spicy, marked but not dominated by the oak. There's also ripe golden fruit and clementine. In the mouth, this is also relatively but not excessively oaky, generous, full-bodied but with sufficient freshness for balance. Big, spicy mouth-filling Chardonnay, refined in its oaked style. Long finish and very moreish.' 17 Points, Julia Harding MW, JANCISROBINSON.COM

'Rich and toasty with a golden-green hue, there's no mistaking the oak...which has the overt style that we've come to expect from Greywacke Chardonnay. Ripe, white stone fruit meets floral and smoky bacon tones in this young, unapologetic expression. Yet plenty of concentration and a sense of firm tension give this wine persistence and drive.' 91 Points, Rebecca Gibb MW, VINOUS.COM

'In typical Greywacke style, this is an intensely reductive Chardonnay with heady aromas of struck match, roasted cashew, grilled citrus and seashell. The palate is more poised and fruit-forward than the nose suggests, while still being toasty, concentrated and intense, with textural weight and lovely acidity to the harmonious finish.' 91 Points, Christina Pickard, WINE ENTHUSIAST

GREYWACKE CHARDONNAY 2021

'The 2021 Chardonnay leads with a nutty, spicy nose, loads of savory curry leaf, a nice flinty reduction and crushed nuts. It's a brilliant wine with lovely flow. Superb.'

95 Points, Erin Larkin, ROBERT PARKER WINE ADVOCATE

'Expressive and intense minerality of sea spray and flinty aromas followed by lemon zest, apple blossoms and almonds with a hint of dried tea leaves. Medium-bodied, crisp acidity. Piquant and tangy finish. Many interesting savory layers.' 94 Points, James Suckling, JAMESSUCKLING.COM

'A lovely whiff of smoke and litsea oil adds complexity to the core of grilled Meyer lemon, pineapple, green cardamom and candied ginger flavours.' 92 Points, MaryAnn Worobiec, WINESPECTATOR.COM

'In last year's Viva Wine Awards, Greywacke was honoured for its exceptional sauvignons but, as this illustrates, it makes impressive wines across the board. It packs some power in its notes of flint and line of grapefruit acidity, but there's also an elegance to its pure white fruited profile.'

#7 – 50 Top bottles to pop. Jo Burzynska, VIVA's NZ WINE AWARDS

'Bright, light yellow/green, it has a fragrant, gently smoky bouquet. Notably sturdy and weighty, it has finely balanced acidity and concentrated, ripe stonefruit flavours, complex and savoury. A bolder style than most of the region's Chardonnays.' 5 Stars, Michael Cooper, MICHAELCOOPERWINES.COM

'Great length and detail, hints of bacon fat and butterscotch towards the finish add to the sense of weight and power. A serious and powerful wine that has all the volume knobs turned up to 11'

95 Points, Stuart Knox, THEREALREVIEW.COM

'Intense, tangy chardonnay with lemon curd, white peach, oyster shell, subtle oak and nutty yeast lees flavours. Serious chardonnay with good cellaring potential.'

95 Points, Bob Campbell MW, THEREALREVIEW.COM

'Dill pickle, shades of yellow, salivating acidity, fine lines...combines power and finesse.'

John Saker, TE WHENUA

GREYWACKE CHARDONNAY 2019

'Leads with a spicy, savory nose of salted ripe yellow peach, preserved citrus, crushed rocks and wet limestone. In the mouth, the wine is fulsome and complete, with wall-to-wall flavor that lingers after the wine is gone. There's something obvious about the Mendoza clone flavors, but I'll admit I like it very much. Good wine here.' 93+ Points, Erin Larkin, ROBERT PARKER WINE ADVOCATE

'A totally captivating bouquet laced with aromas of baked stone fruits and wood spices. There's a stony soil mineral quality that sits just beneath scents of apple and white peach, baking spices and a fine flinty quality. On the palate - a wine of texture and complexity, a core of fruit and oak spices, some battonage toastiness and a long weighty, finish. Complex and youthful, textured and dry, a wine that will continue to age and develop.' 95 Points, Cameron Douglas MS, CAMDOUGLASMS.COM

'Rich, smooth-textured wine with grapefruit, a hint of green apple, freshly baked bread, oyster shell and classy French oak flavours. Still quite closed and youthful with masses of potential for bottle development.' 95 Points, Bob Campbell MW, THEREALREVIEW.COM

'Still youthful, firm, savoury, tasty, concentrated, rich and powerful with a dense core of fruit and plenty of winemaking influence.' 95 Points, Bennet & Hudson, WINERATER.CO.NZ

'Light straw colour. Pungent struck match with undertones of stone fruits and bacon fat. Palate is full and complex with weighty stone fruits, lashings of reductive minerality and bacon fat notes. Acidity offers guidance with tension and drive to a very long finish. Serious chardonnay'

94 Points, Stuart Knox, THEREALREVIEW.COM

'Flint, burnt lemons, peaches, mango stones and white tea. Textured and complex with beautiful minerality and phenolic bite. Dense and full-bodied with a restrained feel.'

93 Points, James Suckling, JAMESSUCKLING.COM

'The 2019 Chardonnay is full, firm and serious. It is savoury in its youth with fine toasty and smoky bacon notes overlying the subtle fruit flavours. It is not a shy and retiring Chardonnay.'

92 Points, Rebecca Gibb MW, VINOUS.COM

GREYWACKE

GREYWACKE CHARDONNAY 2018

'Currently delicious, but very age-worthy, this tightly structured wine...fragrant, slightly smoky bouquet. Full-bodied, it has ripe stone-fruit flavours, well-integrated oak, and impressive concentration, complexity and harmony.' 98 Points, Michael Cooper, WINESTATE MAGAZINE

'A fantastic wine with a bouquet, aromas and flavours of wildflowers and fine leesy spices, grapefruit and apple, nectarine and silty, stony soils...As the wine warms in glass the flavours continue to develop leading to a long salivating finish.' 97 Points, Cameron Douglas MS, THE SHOUT (NZ)

'Rich and complex wine with white peach, citrus/grapefruit, almond, hazelnut, ginger and spicy oak flavours. A little bottle age has allowed the wine to integrate, mellow and become more interesting. It will continue to develop but is in a good place right now.' 96 Points, Bob Campbell MW, THEREALREVIEW.COM

'Hint of stinky reduction over a white, creamy nose. Concentrated, intense fruit on the palate with a lick of oak. Powerful with a well-judged, sulfite-inflected long finish with mineral notes and lingering fruit. Gets more elegant with time as the oak, acid and flint all comes together.'

96 Points, Stephen Wong MW, THEREALREVIEW.COM

'This is a very intense, complex, funky, voluminous nose with lemon-rind, grapefruit, and peach fruit with buttered popcorn, and freshly baked whole-meal bread barrel-ferment characters. A rich, opulent wine with a creamy mid-palate texture, but plenty of salivating, fresh acidity to balance. A smart, satisfying wine with a lot to offer.' 94 Points, Bennet & Hudson, WINERATER.CO.NZ

'A rich, complex white, with a fragrant smoky accent and a touch of listea oil to the core of fresh, vibrant Meyer lemon, pear and lime sorbet notes on a sleek frame.'

93 Points, MaryAnn Worobiec, WINESPECTATOR.COM

'Aromas of cooked apple, vanilla bean, light coconut and some pie crust follow through to a full body with a creamy texture and lots of fruit, nougat and cream in the aftertaste. Yet, it remains fresh and firm.'

93 Points, James Suckling, JAMESSUCKLING.COM
